Farmington Presbyterian Cemetery Farmington, MN

Established in 1868 and the name was changed on February 18, 2003, to "Farmington Middle Creek Historic Cemetery".

"In July, 1868, one acre of land was given by Samuel Osborn to the trustees of the Presbyterian church for a cemetery. The grounds are pleasantly located on a hillside in the south east quarter of section 25. The body of Miss Ada Bacon was laid here first in 1859, before the land was formerly devoted to its present use. The officers of the Presbyterian church act as officers of the cemetery."
